

The Provincetown Public Library and Provincetown Community Television are proud to announce the release of the first three videos of the 2020 Provincetown Public Library's Virtual Moby-Dick Marathon. With the help of more than 35 dedicated readers, a shortened version of the Marathon took shape through video and audio recordings after the in-person Marathon was cancelled due to COVID-19. The Virtual Moby-Dick Marathon is comprised of nine videos, which will be released every week through Vimeo moving forward.

The first videos can be viewed at: vimeo.com/showcase/ptownmoby. The subsequent videos will be released on the same site and will be announced on the Library's eNewsletters and through the Library's Facebook page. The segments can also be seen on PTV Channel 99 in Provincetown on Sundays at 4:00 pm.

The Library would like to express its gratitude to all of the readers who volunteered their time to make this endeavor possible. The Library would also like to highlight the efforts and talents of both Brittany Taylor, PPL Assistant Director and Amy Davies, PTV Executive Director, who worked tirelessly to compile, edit, create, and produce these videos.
